

THE LEONARD HISTORY

Jack Leonard (Born 1828), an enslaved Black man from Tennessee came to the Marion County Area in the 1840s. He took the Leonard name from his former slave master. He met and married the love of his life Bina Davis (1837 - 1898). To this union eight children were born. These children were Charlie (1852), Matilda (1855), Peter (1856), Horris (1858) Satara (1865) , Lucy, Harriet, and Zack (1869).

Jack and Bina were farmers who worked very hard on the farm. The oldest son, Charlie worked as hard as his father, Jack did. Jack always instilled in his children to Work Hard, Stick Together and Believe in God.
